For the first half of this week the bill announced for this popular thea-tre, is certainly a banner one, both vaudeville and photoplays are better vaudeville and photoplays are better than anything ever seen here. Heading the show is The Lester Trio, two women and a man, who present a comedy variety skit entitled The Bathroom Mystery. This is one of the cleverest acts in vaudeville and comes to the Davis theatre direct from Kefth's, Boston. The second number our the bill is Welcome and Welcome in a novelty symnastic act the come in a novelty gymnastic act, the physical girl and the man on his hands, and the third act is Madam Timmons, the lady with the golden voice, who will be heard in a repetoire of high class songs. For those who enjoy good singing this will be the state of high class songs. For those who enjoy good singing this will be toire of high class songs. For those who enjoy good singing this will be a positive treat. The Triangle feature photoplay for this bill is called Sunshine Dad, with DeWolfe Hopper, the celebrated legitimate actor as the star. The story revolves around the theft of a diamond band from a Hindo shrine, and there are many exciting moments during the five reals. Hindo shrine, and there are many exciting moments during the five reels of this picture. Featured with Dewolf Hopper is Fay Tinchef, who wears some striking black and white dresses. She is the girl who made the famous black and white dress creations that have been copied so widely by New York couturiers. The Keystone comedy is called The Snow Cure, a two reel laugh provoker featuring Ford Sterling, the popular Keystone star. Tuesday there will be four complete shows at this theatre. On Thursday the first of the Chaplin comedies made under the tre. On Thursday the first of the Chaplin comedies made under the $670,000 contract will be shown here. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Strong Feature Bill Today Headed by Hazel Dawn in "My Lady Incog."

Another excellent Paramount Another excellent Paramount picture feature will head the fine list of photoplays to be shown today and tomorrow at the Auditorium. It is entitled My Lady Incog, and in it Miss Hazel Dawn will be seen in the title role. Starting this evening and until further notice a string orchastra will furnish music for all the pictures and during the feature picture they will render a special musical score gotten together especially for that particular picture by a Boston publishing house. that particular picture by a Boston publishing house. This should make a hig improvement as good music has a his improvement as good music has become essential now to the projection of the picture. The machines at the Auditorium have just been put in the pink of condition and a steady, bright, flickerless picture will be shown at all times.

Just a word about today's feature in which Miss Dawn will be seen at her best;

cog, which is to be the Paramount picture at the Auditorium for today and tomorrow will be a revelation. As Nell Carroll in this thrilling comedydrama, Miss Dawn does the best work of her motion picture carrier far of her motion picture career, far eclipsing anything that she has ever done.

In addition to the far-famed Dawn smile and the personality that has enchanted her audiences, Hazel Dawn displays a snap and dash in her portrayal of the girl detective that is captivating and delightful. Nell Carroll is a Southern girl of good birth and fine breeding, who suddenly discovers that her old home is mortgaged to the limit and will be lost if she cannot raise the money to meet the cannot raise the money to meet the obligations. She has never been trained for any specific work, but finally obtains employment in a detactive account.

Return Engagement of "Hypocrites."

Hypocrites, the photoplay which set the whole country talking and which was run here at the Auditorium the Fourth of last July, will be shown here again this coming Wednesday and Thursday, two days only.

Unique in conception and execution, Hypocrites discroses hitherto unknown possibilities in the making of motion pictures. Artistic in its minuest details, overwhelmingly powerful in its relentless analysis of the human character, symbolical of the worst and best in life, it is a film that grips the attention, stirs the imagination and impresses incellibly upon the mind facts which we are all too prone to ignore in our materialistic outlook upon life. The story is great because it does not simply entertain, but makes one think.

Deputy Sheriff Healey was notified and a number of men started out with him early Saturday morning in search of the man, who was supposed to be in hiding near by in the swamp. The posse, about 15 men in all, scoured the swamp, but nothing was found that will aid in solving Mr. Calkins' story.

After the swamp had been searched the posse went to the Calkins house, where they found the three shells by the stone wall where the assailant was seen by Mr. Calkins.

The men spread out through the surrounding neighborhood and the search continued all day. The police in all nearby towns and cities have been warned to be on the lookout for a man of the description sent out by

Just a word about today's feature in which Miss Dawn will be seen at her best:

If you have smiled unconsciously in response to the irresistible smile of Hazel Dawn as she appeared before you on the motion picture screen in former Famous Players productions, her next appearance in My Lady Incog, which is to be the Paramount picture at the Auditorium and tomage. Lambert said: "Of course, some of them are too smail for use, but the big fellows I take home, and what I don't use myself I give away. The flesh of these fish is very sweet and delicious." The fishermen use lanterns, and Friday night nearly 50 people fished well into the night.

Congregational Auditory Renovated. The carpeting of the auditorium of the Congregational church was finished Saturday so that those attending the Sunday services were able to see the sunday services were able to see the new carpet. Not only has the car-pet been changed during the past week but the seat cushions have been clean-ed, the pulpit chairs reupholstered and the woodwork refreshened.

finally obtains employment in tective agency.

From then on things happen in rapid succession and the girl detective has many odd experiences mingled with romance, love and honesty, all of which tend to make My Lady Incog the interesting picture that it is. Besides this exceptional feature there will be a very good comedy drama in two reels by the Pathe company and a single reel comedy, entitled Ach! Such Crimes.

POETRY

I WONDER. I wonder if the rases know
The beauty and the charm they yield.
Or if the dalsy how it decks
The gradual grayness of the field,
I wonder if the heart that sings
Hears how the other hearts it wakes
Are happy for the joy it brings
In what it does for others' sakes.

wonder if the star's aware of all the sweet content it spells
Joon the little lives of care that catch lis beauty on the hills, wonder if the violet feels
The tender and responsive gleam of love that in the woodland kneels
To worship at the shrines of dream.

wonder if all beauty shares
The knowledge of the good that grows
From out its mil-unconscious sweet—
The song of bird, the bloom of rose,
Or whether, it is not as when
Some life blossoms like a flower,
Moves gently mid its feilow-men
More like a perfume than a power,
—Baltimore Sun.

THE WIND GHOSTS.

It may be as some Poets say,
The winds that bluster noisily
Are spectres of some other day
Come back in dolorous array
To moan o'er you and me.

Poor shricking souls, the restless dead Of ages now forever spent. Returning full of tears unabed To fill our hearts with thoughts of dread. Our ears with their lament.

At wiews so gloomy and so grave
I've neither time nor wish to sooff,
But judged by how those winds behave.
If they are ghosts I'll warrant they've
Come back th "blow us off,"
And not to add unto our cares
With woes of theirs!
